

Gerry Brooks

Consultant, Gartner Consulting

Gerry is a Consultant in Gartner Consulting's U.S. Federal Public Sector practice. Mr. Brooks joined Gartner in 2019 and works out of the Gartner offices in Arlington, Virginia. Mr. Brooks has 14 years of experience in leadership and management, leading diverse and multi-functional team.

Prior to joining Gartner, Mr. Brooks spent ten years on active duty as a Naval Officer, both as a Nuclear Submarine Officer, and an Engineering Duty Officer. His experience includes:

- As a Submarine Officer – Served as the Reactor Control Assistant and the Communication Officer.
- As an Engineering Duty Officer – Served as the Master Scheduler and Risk Manager for P-913, a design, bid, build construction project for Naval Computer and Telecommunication Center Atlantic (NCTAMS LANT). He also served as the Project Lead at SPAWAR Systems Center Atlantic (SSC LANT) for Nuclear Command, Control, Communication – Navy (NC3-N), a system designed to keep the President connected to military forces in the instance of a nuclear event.

Mr. Brooks earned a Bachelor of Science (with merit) in Electrical Engineering from the U.S. Naval Academy (2008), working toward a Master of Engineering Management, Engineering Management from Old Dominion University.